Building a Culture of Caring – Continued: How we can and why we should improve interpersonal relationships on campus by increasing compassion and building resilience.

A penny for your Thoughts:
- What is on your mind about student success?
- How can we collaborate on the unprecedented challenges we face today?

Next Generation Accuplacer: An overview of updates and changes to the College’s placement test. Including:
- new test certification requirements;
- branching profiles;
- placement rules.

Ten(ish) Things You Should Learn about Learn before I Retire: This may be your last chance to pick my brain about Learn! Want to organize your Grade Center more efficiently? Collaborate with students online? Use achievements to motivate students? Set special test rules for specific students? Anything else you want to know about Learn? Go to https://tinyurl.com/LCCCOct2018 from any computer, tablet, or even your smart phone to join in.

ALICE E-Learning Module: You are invited to complete the e-learning module which will introduce staff to the ALICE program, describing the history of active shooter events in America, discuss lessons learned from these tragedies, describe research which supports options-based strategies, specifically the Alert, Lockdown, Inform and Counter concept.
Violence in Society: An introduction to the P.S.T.I. three-hour seminar packed with information you can use to develop a plan to protect yourself, your family, and employees.
